RELICS OF THE SAND-HILL. Buried Houses Revealed and Trees

Showing to the Surface.

Michical Try. October 10.—The great quantities of sand now being taken away from Hoosier Silde, an average of five car loads a day, is causing that once famous sand-hill to go down rapidly. Colonel A. S. Nicholls recently purchased it, and is shipping the sand to all quarters. The excavations on the east side have revealed some interesting things. An old house, still standing, has just been exposed. How long it has been buried can not be learned. The workmen found an ax and a man early hour. Conspicuous in a sasemblage was Custer Post of the Grand ray of the Republic, which, drawn up in its assemblage was Custer Post of the Grand ray of the Republic, which, drawn up in season to supply the sand a stove hook were unearthed. These things were taken from the one-story house. At the southeast corner, near the popular path of a saled pain in front of the hotel, under the southeast corner, near the popular path of sont of colonel A. C. Dawes, General Pasner Agent of the Hannibal & St. Joseph in Joseph will new nine or ten years ago, but the sand soon drove the inhabitants out and buried the structure. The tops of trees are beginning to protrude as the sand goes down. From the size of the trunks it is supposed the roots must be twenty-five feet further down. No one living remembers the one-story house.

MR. COFFEE AND PISTOLS.

CHICAGO CAPTAIN TO BE IN-DICTED IN ARKANSAS

A Banker Citizen of Little Rock Receives a Pleasant Note, Calling for a Settlement of a Question by Duel.

CHICAGO. October 10.—A special from Little Rock, Ark., says: The Grand Jury of this county has been instructed by the Circuit Judge to inquire into the matter and bring in an indictment against Captain Coffee, of Chicago, for sending a challenge to Horace Allis, of this city, to fight a duel. H. G. Allis is President of the First National Rank and park President of the First National Bank and part owner of the Capital City Street Railway of Little Rock, and H. T. Coffee is a Chicago capitalist who is largely interested in the Little Rock Electric Railway Company. Shortly after Allis purchased an interest in the street railway, he procured the passage of an ordinance permitting the substitution of electricity for mules as a motor. Then the spistolary warfare between the two men began, each accusing the of er of bad faith and broken promises. At last, Coffee felt called upon to demand a retraction, and he sent the following letter to his friend A. W. Percy at Little Rock, Ark.:

"H. G. Allis, Little Rock, Ark.: "H. G. Allis, Little Rock Ark .

"H. G. Allis, Little Rock, Ark.:

"Touching the matters of difference between us, I ask that you fix a time and place where we can finally end them. This will be handed to you by my iriend Mr. W. A. Percy, who will act for me in arranging the details.

"Respectfully, H. T. Coffer."

Captain Coffee has lived in Chicago about five years. He formerly lived at little Rock and was in the Confederate army, serving most of the time under General Robert E. Lee. He is about fifty years old and is about as mild-mannered a man as ever one could imagine to be guilty of the words pistols and coffee in one suggestive sentence. When asked if he intended his letteras a challenge to mortal combat, he responded: "I suppose it might be called a challenge but that is rather a brutal way of putting it."

He insisted, however, that Mr. Allis had lived long enough amoung Southern gentlement to know what the letter meant, and that his action in refusing to answer it and turning it over to the officers of the law was proof that he was deficient in honor as well as the other qualities that go to make up a gentleman.

"I am not surprised by the news that I am man.

"I am not surprised by the news that I am to be indicted," said Cagtain Coffee last evening. "In fact, I rather expected it. It is entirely in keeping with the malicious nature of Mr. Allis. Of course, I can not say what the outcome will be, but I have no fears, and I will cheerfully go to Little Rock and stand triel."

A Little Dinner to General Pryor.

New York, October 10.—General Roger A.
Pryor, who is now Judge Roger A. Pryor, was the recipient of all kinds of hearty congratulations from some of New York's most eminent citizens at the Astor House last night. The occasion was a dinner given to the distinguished ex-Confederate soldier by John Russell Young, in recognition of General Pryor's slevation to the bench. The menu was claborate, the speeches witty and brilliant, and the pleasant things said of the honored guest sent him home a very happy man. Among those present were ex-President Grover Cleveland, Chauncey M. Depew, General W. T. Sherman, Judge John R. Brady, Colonel Cockerill, Colonel Daniel Lamont, John S. Wise, Smith Ely, George Jones, Tom Nast, Augustin Daly, Joe Jefferson, W. R. Pryor, Senator Hearst, Senator Gorman, Judge Joseph F. Daley, Daniel Dougherty, Sheriff Daniel E. tees to Throw Out Votes Not Stamped-Confusion That Will be Created.

Dayless, Perry and Union Counties have failed to send to the State Board of Election Commissioners certificates of the division of the counties into election precincts under the new law. The law provides that the commissioners of each county, immediately after their June session, shall have the Auditor to certify to the State Board the division of the county into new precincts; also a statement of the probable number of votes in each precinct. The object of the provision is to give the State Board information upon which to base the distribution of tickets. Unless the counties all file their certificates becore next Tuesday they may have to lace the question whether or not their votes shall be counted. On that day the work of printing the State tickets will be begun, and the last day of grace for filing certificates will have passed.

The Commissioners in some of the other counties have sailed to comply with the letter of the law, and these lailures will be considered by the Board at its meeting Tuesday. The law provides that precincts shall be lessened in sizes o as not to contain more than 250 votes. The Auditor of Greene County sends in a certificate stating that Richland Township, that county, has been divided into three precincts of 300 votes each. Another county that certifies precincts with too many votes is Grant. Washington Township, that county, is certified to as having 310 votes. The Auditor, in a note of explanation, says the assignment of voters was made under a poil taken early in the spring, but that afterward a recount showed sixty more voters in the precinct than the Commissioners had supposed there were. The great increase in so short a time was due to the springing up of new industries on account of natural ass.

The Conference Committee of the Marion County Republican and Democratic Central (Special to The Indianapolis News.) MARION, October 10.—The great event marking the meeting of the American Christian Convention, yesterday afternoon was the return of the southern wing, which broke away in 1854 on account of sectional differences. Rev. H. J. Duckworth, President of the General Council of the Christian Union, addressed the convention, declaring his alliance with the Christian denomination, and asserting that the neonle of his sect, numbering probably the convention, declaring his alliance with the Christian denomination, and asserting that the people of his sect, numbering probably 100,000, were assimilating with the Christiana. Dr. Watson, from the Committee on Church Union, submitted a report showing there were no points at issue between the brethren of the church North and South, and that the latter, through their representatives, desired to be admitted on a general plan: (1) That the General Convention of the Christian Church maintain its autonomy in every sense undisturbed. (2) That the General Convention shall be bound by no action of the American Christian Convention to which it has not given its official assent. (3) That the Southern delegates shall have the right to vote in the American Christian Convention has approved, or does approve by their vote, which vote shall be subject to ratification by the General Convention itself.

Following the settlement of this question and the introduction of the Southern delegates, a jubiles service was held, during which the venerable Mrs. E. J. Summerbell, widow of Rev. N. Summerbell, the first President of the Union Christian College, and who was pastor of the Christian Church at Cincinnati, where the convention was held in 1854, marking the breaking away of the Southern wing, was presented to the audience, and she thanked God that she had lived to see the chasm bridged over and the South brought back within the iold.

CREED REVISION.

The Slow Work of the Committee of the Presbyterian Assembly.

PITTSBURG, October 10.—The work of the Committee on Revision of the Presbyterian confesson of faith is progressing satisfactorily. To-day the discussion was on the eighth and ninth chapters of the work. The sixth and seventh chapters considered yesterday are considered the most important, and much of the work yet to be done can be passed overrapidly. The committee can not complete the work at this meeting, however, and another meeting will be held in Washington, D. C., on February 9. It has not yet been decided when February 9. It has not yet been decided when this meeting will be adjourned, but on account of the many synods meeting next week, it is not probable that the committee will remain in the city longer than until next Monday main in the city longer than until next Monday.

While the committee did not get along so rapidly yesterday as before, they consider their work very satisfactory, in as much as they are now in the hardest part of the instrument. One of the divinessaid to-day that the reason they were taking the matter so slowly was that the old confession of faith had stood 250 years, and they want the new one to stand as good a test. The changes made are not made at all radical, and the committee hopes to have their work adopted by the General Assembly without a great deal of objection. Rev. Dr. B. B. Booth, of New York, and Eider H. M. Strotton, of New Jersey, were elected to fill the vacancies on the committees.

time was due to the springing up of new industries on account of natural gas.

The Conference Committee of the Marion County Republican and Democratic Central Committees have entered into an agreement that, in case a voter stamps the square at the head of the ticket and then stamps one or more candidates on the opposition ticket without stamping all the candidates on his own ticket he wishes to vote for, the ballot shall be thrown out. The decision is believed to be one that will cause much consusion, and will result in many men losing their votes. The decision is based on the idea that it would be illegal to count the ballot under the circumstances named, because, while the voter had indicated whom he intended to vote for on the opposition ticket, he had not indicated whom he intended to vote against on his own ticket. For instance, "A." a Democrat, wishes to vote for four of the five candidates for Representatives on his own ticket. And ex Mayor McMaster on the Republican ticket. He stamps the square at the head of the Democratic ticket and then stamps in front of ex-Mayor McMaster's name, thus indicating that he wishes to vote for him While he has done that he has also unthoughtedly voted for six candidates by not indicating who he wanted to vote against on his own ticket. The best way probably to have a ticket counted, in case a "straight" one is not voted, is to stamp every man for whom it is desired to vote. The law gives the voter the right to stamp the whole licket or to stamp the scratched name, and the decision of the committees above may not be authorized.

Everything pleased my neighbor, Jim.
When is rained
He never complained
But said wet weather suited him.
"There never is too much rain for me,
And this is something like," said he.

When earth was dry as a powder mill,
He did not sigh
Because it was dry;
But said if he could have his will
It would be his chief, supreme delight
To live where the sun shone day and night

When winter came with its snow and ice,
He did not scold
Because it was cold,
But said: "Now this is real nice;
If ever from home I'm forced to go
I'll move up north with the Esquimau."

A cyclone whirled along its track,
And did him harm—
It broke his arm,
And stripped the cost from off his back;
"And I would give another limb
To see such a blow again," said Jim. And when at length his years were told,
And his body bent
And his strength all spent,
And Jim was very weak and old;
"I long have wanted to know," he said,
"How it feels to die," and Jim was dead

The angel of death had summoned him
To heaven, or—well,
I can not tell;
But I know that the climste suited Jim;
And cold or hot, it mattered not—
It was to him the long-sought spot.

BAD FOR THE FAIR. Our Righ Tariff Will Keep European Exhibitors Away.

Some persons believe that the effect of the McKinley bill on the Fair will be more serious than the Directors and Commissioners think. A gentleman who solicited European exhibits for the New Orleans Exposition with a new tariff bill to face, ventured the opinion, yesterday that except France, perhaps, there would be no official recognition of the Chicage Fair by any European power.

"The same causes," and he, "that prevented the New Orleans Exposition being a world's fair will operate against the Columbian Exposition. The New Orleans Exposition bina Exposition. A Terrapin Farm.

A Terrapin Farm.

[Fernandina (Fla.) News.!

A terrapin farm is an inclosure about twenty feet square, one-half of it filled with loose sand, and a tank occupying the rest of the space. The tank is below tide level, and at high tide the salt water runs in from the marsh to a depth of four feet. The sand was all perforated with holes, and the owner, digging down with his fingers unearthed some baby terrapins an inch or two long. They were lively little fellows and were restless in the daylight. The earth were restless in the daylight. The earth was full of them only a few days old. The mud at the bottom of the tank was also full of them. After they are a few days old they seek the water, and, burying themselves in the mud, remain there till spring, when they come out to make a start in the when they come out to make a start in the world. All this period spent in the mud they live by suction. They sell for $18 a dozen in New York when fully grown. The little fellows are from the eggs deposited by the old females. The terrapin lay four or five times in a season, beginning with about nine eggs at the first laying, and winding up the season with a lay of about three.

English Newspaper Bulls. [St. James Gazetie.]

There were some good newspaper bulls during the session—all of the genuine Irish breed. Mr. Donal Sullivan introduced to the House one from an Irish paper. It was in the form of an advertisement for a laborer and a boy, and concluded thus: "With grazing for two goats; both Protestants." An Irishman writing in the Times on the late Baron Dowse concluded his eulogium: "A great Irishman has passed away. God grant that many as great, and who shall as grant that many as great, and who shall as grant that many as great, and who shall as wisely love their country, may follow him." A Dublin paper heard that "the health of Mr. Parnell has latterly taken a very serious turn, and that fears of his recovery are entertained by his friends." Several English papers quoted this without detecting the bull. A Cork paper, in describing an interval of peace in a stormy public meeting, said: "For some time a great calm raged."

NEW TRIAL AS OF RIGHT.

14,306. John Hall vs. Shelby Hedrick.
Brown C. C. Affirmed. Olds, J.

(1) A complaint which alleges that the plaintiff is the owner of a certain tract of land and also an easement and right of way across the land of the de endant, describing it, to a highway, and asking that his right be declared and the defendant perpetually enjoined from closing up or obstructing the way, etc., is good on demurrer, and the plaintiff need not allege facts to show how he derived the right of way.

(2) It was a harmless error to sustain a demurrer to a cross-complaint of the defendant which alleged that the plaintiff was claiming title to a right of way over defendant a land, which claim cast a cloud on his title, and asking that his title be quieted, as this was the question under the issues joined by the general denial. (8) This is not a proper case for a new trial as a matter of right, as it is not an action to recover land.

OMPLAINT—MENDMENT—APPEAL—EFFECT OF ON JUDGMENT.

14,439. Henry R. W. Meyer, et al. vs. State ex rel. Ezekiel R. Day. Floyd C. C. Affirmed. Berkshire, C. J.

(1) A complaint may be amended by making the State a party ex rel. anytime before the final conclusion of the trial. (2) Appraisers in a proceeding to appropriate lands for railway purposes filed their report of assessment of damages with the appellant, the County Clerk, and the railway company at once paid to him, for the use of the relator, the amount of such damages. The relator not being satisfied with said assessments filed exceptions and appealed to the Circuit Court where upon the trial his damages were largely increased, and from this the railway company appealed to the Supreme Court, but pending their appeal paid to the Clerk for the use of the relator the additional dawages found to be sustained by him. Helvit That the appellant should have paid to the relator the money so paid by the company, notwithstanding the company's appeal to the Supreme Court was still pending, as the only effect of an appeal from a final judgment is to stay assecution, and here the judgment was paid.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Peculiarity of Their Multiplied Uses In Certain Cases.

Woodstock, Ont, is the way the "ye' and "Woodstock, Ont, is the way the "ye' and "W. B. Clarke. "Benwell, a speculative young Englishman, is lured to Canada by Reginald Birchall; they leave Rufialo and Niagara Palis, and on a 'local' go to Blenheim swamp, where Birchall shoots Benwell through the back of the head with a pistol or small rifle, the ball going through the victim's blue, rolled-up coat collar, and he falling heavily forward. Then we have Charles Benwell, brother, Cotonel Benwell, father, and Birchall's laithful little wife. This celebrated criminal trial was neid in the Town Hall building, a place usually used by the traveling theatrical people, the selling of and scramble for tickets to the gallery by well-dressed ladies; even when the Sunday church bells were tolling, the crowd filling all the room; his lordship, the judge, in his long, black gown, on a small, low platform, and his charge well calculated to convict; the constable, with his old white, blue and yellow pole, grandly leading the smilling and marvellously calm criminal to the box, where he pieaded 'not guilty' and heard the verdict 'guilty.' Then there were Lawy ere Osier, Ball, Blackstock, Finkle, McMullen, L. McKay, etc., Detective Bluett, Doctors Welliord and Taylor, Witnessee Charles Benwell, Douglass, Pelley, Millman, Hellmuth, Pillows, Cromwell, William Oulbertson's son, Fuller, the tall Piekthall, an ersiwhile pupil looking for a windfall: Miss Pickthall, Calwell, Hull, Poole, Radley, Halward, Sutheriand, Lookhart, Elizabeth Choate, of Ingersoll; McDonald, Logan, Charles Buck, Alice Smith. Special Police Entwhistle was his guard. Then there was the all-important tell-tale cigar-holder, the delivery of the Benwall-Birchall telegram by the telegraph boy, Samuel McMaster, to O'Neill, clerk of the Imperial Hotel, Niagara Falls; the Mellerish letters, and the Imperial Bank teller, the Bastell telegram, baggage keys, telegrams, hotels, railroads, steamship lines, the blue clothes, black cap and pantaloons rolled up, London, Hamilton,

AMUSEMENTS.

"Later On" at English's-"Doncaster

Station" at the Park. "Later On" renewed its acquaintance with Indianapolis last night to a house that was pretty nearly jammed, and which testified in all known ways to its entertainment. The troupe is changed almost entirely except the "Big Four," Hallen, Hart, Lewis and Fuller, who are as "fiy" as ever. The singing strength of the company has been greatly increased, but there is no improvement in other directions. The only character in it, Bandana Clutch the Sheriff, has been reduced to a nonenity by the gentleman who rattles around in the place that Kelley filled last year. There are many new songs and dances, and they are excellent examples of their kind—none better on the stage—though the famous "Three New Sports in Town" has been injured by the "improving" process. The change in the music is a detriment, and the "make up" is not nearly so good as formerly, particularly Mr. Hallen's. If these genial entertainers will please return to the old style and give us just what they did last year in this appearance, they will confer a favor. The piece will play the week out. "Doncaster Station" replaced "Braving the World" to-day at the Park.

"Blind Tom," assisted by local musicians, will give a concert at the Park on Sunday evening.

Organizing a Freight Bureau.

Preliminary steps toward the organization of a freight bureau were taken by the Indianapolis shippers at last night's meeting in Board of Trade hall. George G. Tanner presided over the meeting. The benefits to be derived from such a bureau were set forth by D. P. Erwin, I. S. Gordon and others. Mr. Erwin said the agent of the Chicago freight bureau saved the live stock shippers alone $13,000 annually. Mr. Erwin said that if the commissioner of the bureau could succeed in induoing a single manufactory to locate here he would more than earn his salary. If he could extend the territory of Indianapolis shippers by securing better freight rates he would do immeasurable good. Committees were appointed, representing all the shipping interests. Over $1,000 was subscribed toward the project fund. The expense of the bureau will be about $4,000 per year.

Charicy Board Meeting.

Charity Board Meeting.

The State Board of Charities, at its quarterly meeting yesterday afternoon, discussed recommendations to be made to the Governor and Legislaturefin the forthcoming annual report. Some important changes in the prison laws of the State will be recommended, and attention will be called to the cases of non-residents who frequently impose on the State's charity, and also the unnecessary expense inflicted in counties by the holding of unnecessary insanity inquests. The board ordered that 1,000 copies of the publication known as Prison Sunday be sent to ministers in the State, with the request that on Sunday, October 26, they talk on the subject of the criminal, his punishment and reformation.

GENTLEMEN WHO ARE PARTICULAR

And know what fine and stylish hats are, as well as men in general who want hats that look well, all will find at the big hat store of Ryan, the Hatter, a very large and complete assortment of hats, made by the Of Notions, Underwear and Small Wares. one can be pleased, no matter how particular he may be. At the same time the price will be reasonable. Some limited in experience hat men advertise their names in connection with high priced ($6 and $8) hats, presuming that people will rush to their stores and buy for the sake of paying three times the worth of the goods, because the latter have stamped therein the names of the ambitious dealers. But the buyers "can't see it." Ryan, the Hatter, oldest and largest hat house in the State. All the best goods that money can buy at moderate prices. 21 and 23 South Illinois Street.
